What's nearby?

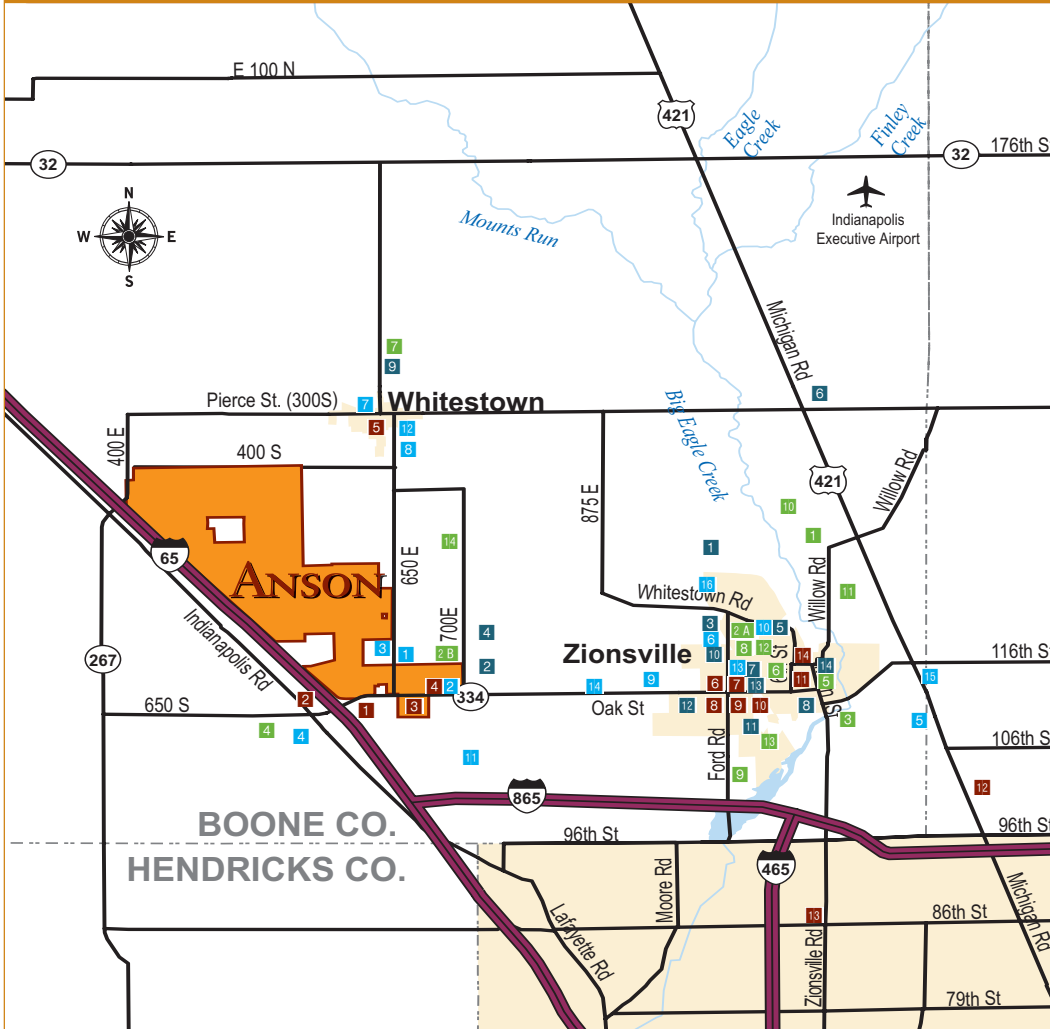

While most of life's necessities can be taken care of in the Anson community, additional shopping, entertainment, worship and recreation opportunities are always nearby. Anson-area amenities are diverse—from boutique and gallery shopping on Zionsville's brick Main Street, to more than a dozen parks, to museums, libraries and municipal services.

Just three miles east, Zionsville is home to a series of traditional seasonal events including an ever-expanding Farmer's Market, and the hallmarks of the Village calendar: a huge Fourth of July celebration at Lions Park, a summer street dance, the Zionsville Fall Festival, and Christmas in the Village. Whitestown has their annual "Whitestown Night Out" event attracting over 1,000 visitors. The nearby community of Thorntown offers the Turning Leaves Festival and the Sugar Creek Art Center, while Lebanon hosts a 10-day "Back to the Fifties" Festival in conjunction with their Fourth of July celebration.
