

Where will my children attend school?

ANSON Answers

Anson's founding families are part of the distinguished Zionsville Community Schools system. Public elementary and middle schools are located less than one mile from the Anson community, with transportation available via school bus or car pool. Nearby private and parochial schools offer an alternative to Anson families interested in those education options. To help children start strong, Primrose Early Childhood Development is on-site in the Anson community.

Anson is a Duke Realty Development.

ZIONSVILLE COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

Boone Meadow Elementary School

Open in its present location since 2013, Boone Meadow Elementary serves 350+ students grades K–4. In addition to an award-winning academic program, Boone Meadow offers dozens of clubs and activities to involve and engage children before and after school.

Zionsville West Middle School

Located just one mile from Anson, Zionsville's second middle school—Z West—opened in 2006. Students enjoy a spacious facility outfitted with the latest technology. Full athletic facilities provide physical fitness, while engaging and interactive classrooms contribute to preparing students for high school.

Zionsville Community High School

An Indiana Four-Star School of Excellence and National Blue Ribbon school, ZCHS graduates nearly 95 percent of its senior class each year and sees nearly the same percentage pursue a college education. Enrollment is more than 1,500 students, yet personal attention is a hallmark of ZCHS academics. Regularly ranked among the state's top teams, ZCHS athletics round out a full roster of clubs and organizations that complement students' academic experiences.
